DOUGH KNEADER MACHINE MANUFACTURER

Amongst others, Italpan stands out to be the leading dough kneader machine manufacturer all over Italy, with its convenient supply of fast dough kneading machines that handle exceptionally large amounts of doughs.

STAINLESS STEEL COMPONENTS

These machines are fitted with a stainless grid and bowl for handling your bread dough. The machines also have a huge power reservation to conserve power use in your bakery. Their heavy duty construction ensures durability and low maintenance costs.

CAPACITIES

These machines have high capacity for water and flour as they have large bowl dimensions to handle a great volume of your pastry work all at once. Speed and efficiency of these machines are also outstanding features to ensure maximum convenience in your bakery.
