TARALLI MACHINE MANUFACTURER

Italpan is a prominent Italian taralli machine manufacturer that is highly specialized in producing faster and highly durable taralli machines that are made of heavy duty materials.

TARALLI MACHINES

Amongst the most supplied models of taralli machines are the Taralli Warmer and the Taralli Warmer ST. The machines have a fully stainless steel construction for health safety of your pastry. The machines are also fitted with a 24 V control panel, and have a capacity of 18 trays and a 15 mm height.

LPG OR NATURAL GAS BURNERS

The machines can be supplied either with an LPG or natural gas burner which the customer specifies during ordering. The machines also have an automated gas cock closure in case the flame goes out. The machine is available in four models that hold different amounts of trays.
